

Learning Guide for "The Forgiving Fluoroles"

Suitable for ages 5-11

This story shows what forgiveness means and some of the reasons why it's important.

Discussion Questions

1. What kind of place was the land of the Fluoroles before the Xanathoids arrived there?
2. What does Spartagonus want to do about the "Xanathoid problem"? Do you think he's right?
3. What does Ichtheus want to do about the "Xanathoid problem"? Do you think he's right?
4. Why does Ostian call the Fluorole army an "army of love and forgiveness"?
5. Even though many Fluoroles lost their lands, what was it that they were able to keep or gain back?
6. What is important to you in your life that you would never want to lose?
7. After 100 million years, the Fluoroles and Xanathoids finally were able to live in harmony. What do you think happened?

---

If you found this information useful, visit www.child-stories-bank.com for FREE children's stories, learning guides, information for authors, and a directory of illustrators.